EXPLANATORY NOTE

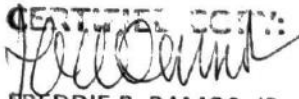

Family plays an important role in molding a child's character. Family functioning, quality parenting, and access to social and family support all contributed to strong optimal health and well-being of every child. To uphold the rights and welfare of children, the Province deems it necessary to adopt measures to give a decent quality life for the youngster and enable them to exercise their rights so that they could develop their full potentials.

This ordinance aims to secure the right of children to assistance, including health, nutrition, education and special protection for all forms of abuses, neglect, cruelty, exploitation and discrimination, and other conditions prejudicial to their interests and provide sanctions for their commission.
